

especially and to those who are inclined to drink intoxicants, you are not off the hook the first time for any reason. We can always say, well, they need to drive to work, well, they need to drive during work because that is their livelihood. It lets everybody off the hook the first time because they can always say I need to drive to school, I need to drive to work, I need to drive during my work, it is an excuse. We shouldn't do it.

SENATOR MARSH: Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR DECAMP: Question.

SENATOR MARSH: The question has been called. Do I see five hands? We will take the vote on the advancement of LB...cease debate. Record.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 0 nays to cease debate, Madam President.

SENATOR MARSH: Your time is up. So make your closing short, please, Senator Hoagland.

SENATOR HOAGLAND: I would ask for a call of the house, Madam President.

SENATOR MARSH: A call of the house has been requested. Those who favor vote aye, opposed no. Record.

CLERK: 20 ayes, 0 nays to go under call.

SENATOR MARSH: The house is under call, those of you who are in the Legislative Chamber. Senators who are within sound of my voice, please return to the Legislative Chamber. The house is under call. Senator Pappas, Senator Peterson, Senator Remmers. Senator Hoagland.

SENATOR HOAGLAND: Yes, let me just give a short closing at this time. It looks like everyone is here but one and I will just want to say three sentences. I hope I have adequately described to the body the extremely limited nature of this exception. It applies only to first offense drunk driver. It applies only to driving on the job. The committee amendments explicitly make it clear that you can't use this to drive to and from work. You can only drive on the job if you can satisfy a judge by clear and convincing evidence you have got to have that license or you are going
